You are invited to the...

Statewide Summit on Colorado Childcare Centers and Disaster Preparedness

When? Thursday, October 2, 2014, 1:00-4:00 p.m.
Where? Room 372-374, Lory Student Center, Colorado State University campus in Fort Collins, Colorado.
Who should attend? Childcare providers and advocates; emergency managers and other disaster response and recovery experts; students and researchers; others interested in helping those who care for Colorado’s youngest children to become more resilient.
Why should you attend? Come hear and discuss the results of the first-ever statewide survey of Colorado childcare providers. Meet representatives from local, state, and federal emergency management agencies and from childcare centers. Help develop a plan to make Colorado centers more disaster ready.
How do I RSVP? To attend, please send an email with your name and affiliation to Prepare@ColoState.Ed

Cost? This event is free and open to the public.

Project Information? This project is funded by the Federal Emergency Management Agency, National Preparedness Division, Region VIII. The project is led by researchers at Colorado State University.

Questions? Contact us at Prepare@ColoState.Ed

For more information on CDRA, please visit: http://disaster.colostate.edu/

STUDY DIRECTOR:
Lori Peek, Ph.D.
Associate Professor, Department of Sociology
Co-Director, Center for Disaster and Risk Analysis
Colorado State University
Prepare@ColoState.Ed

STUDY CO-DIRECTOR:
Sara Gill
Graduate Student, Department of Sociology
Research Assistant, Center for Disaster and Risk Analysis
Colorado State University
Prepare@ColoState.Ed